Are you interested in a career in cardiology?
Do you have concerns about pursuing a career in cardiology because you're female?
Would you like to hear from and network with leading female cardiologists?

Talks from Prof. Ray, President of the British Cardiovascular Society and Dr Alison Calver, Chair of the Specialist Training Committee

Feedback from last year's event:

"Excellent session that reflected and covered concerns of females in a male dominated specialty. Showing personal experiences and some of the negative experiences was really inspiring"

"Genuinely inspiring and informative event"
