

Dear Colleague

We are delighted to be welcoming you back for the next Doctors and Dentists in Training Webinar next Tuesday.

May we take this opportunity to remind you we have moved to a monthly format, with the webinar now being held on the first Tuesday of each month. We will monitor the need for more contact, and there will be extraordinary webinars if any rapid changes should occur.

The next webinar for doctors and dentists in training will be held at 1pm on Tuesday 07th July.

We will be using Microsoft Teams again.

The link to access this is: <https://bit.ly/HEEYHupdate07July>

Please send any questions you would like to be addressed to heeyh.faq@hee.nhs.uk

The upcoming Webinar will feature:

A specific section for Shielded Trainees. This will include information about a Yorkshire and Humber shielded trainees network and SuppoRTT information for those trainees who may be planning a return to patient facing work.

The agenda is below. Post-Webinar as further below we will publish the time stamps to indicate the beginning of each agenda item so you can go straight to a specific section. The recording will be available for 180 days.

Agenda:

- Wellbeing
- ARCP
- Education and Teaching
- Rotations
- Dental Update
- GP Update
- Visa issues
- Shielding Trainees

We hope you found the June webinar helpful again. It is available on the link here for 180 days post broadcast. Attached are the PowerPoint slides which accompanied the webinar on the 02nd June, also below is a breakdown of the timings for the agenda.

We look forward to receiving your questions via the email address above and to you joining us again on the 07th July.
