

BACD Trainees' Day: Managing the Child with Complex Neurodisability

11th December 2019

RCPCH, London

Registration from 9.00

9.30	'What is complexity?' Dr Hilary Cass, Chair, BACD.
10.00	Innovation in Complexity 1: The Medical Complexities Team at Birmingham Children's Hospital Dr Mary Salama, Birmingham Children's Hospital.
Coffee
10.35	Delivering palliative care for children with complex neurodisability Dr Toni Wolff, Nottingham University Hospitals & Chair-elect, BACD.
11.25	Neuroanatomy (for dummies) and its clinical correlations Speaker TBD.
12.05	Neurodisability CSAC – training issues Dr Katherine Martin & Dr Joanna Coghill, RCPCH Paediatric Neurodisability CSAC.
Lunch & CSAC surgery (please book slots in advance)
13.10	Innovation in Complexity 2: The Evelina Conflict Resolution Team Dr Esse Menson, Evelina Children's Hospital, London.
14.00	Complex tone management and the effects of co-morbidities Dr Charlie Fairhurst, Evelina Children's Hospital, London.
14.40	Complex communication needs: Developmental and Augmentative Communication Dr Jenefer Sargent, Great Ormond Street Hospital, London.
Coffee
15.35	Research in paediatric neurodisability Speaker TBD.
16.15	Job planning and the transition from trainee to consultant Dr Aoife McDonald, Evelina Children's Hospital, London.
16.45 Close

Provisional schedule is subject to change

£60 members, £80 non-members

More information: <https://tinyurl.com/y643x6sm>

BACD
British Academy of Childhood Disability