

Leadership for Clinicians Early in their Careers

Are you a clinician or doctor (ST1 – 4 level)?

Wanting to make positive changes at work?

Or wondering if you even have the skills to lead?

This could be the course for you! Leadership is part of the modern clinician's role. Effective leadership is more important than ever given the challenges the NHS is facing. Through small group activities, taught theory and reflection this course will provide an introduction to clinical leadership. Designed and facilitated by NHS clinicians, we will provide knowledge and tools that can be immediately applied in the workplace.

Curriculum includes:

- Compassionate leadership
- Leadership styles
- Adaptive leadership
- Inclusive leadership
- Strengths and preferences
- Dealing with conflict
- Difficult conversations
- Further resources and opportunities

One of the best courses I have ever been on. Brilliantly facilitated, incredible engaging and interesting topics

I could definitely use the learning points from this course to apply in my clinical practice

Very effective! Excellent facilitation with good use of small group discussions

This course is free for clinicians in the Yorkshire and Humber region. Dates are available throughout the year via maxcourse. Sign up and start your leadership journey today.
