

Course Aims and Objectives

Course Name: Salivary Gland Disease

Development Outcomes: This CPD course meets the criteria for the GDC's development outcome(s) C

Aims:

- To improve trainees knowledge and understanding of salivary gland disease in line with the Oral Surgery Curriculum

Objectives:

- Identify conditions or drug therapies that might affect salivary glands
- Appropriate imaging for salivary glands
- Presentation and management of infective, metabolic, inherited and developmental conditions of salivary glands
- Managements of malignant salivary disease
- Diagnosis and management of sialoliths
- Salivary gland surgery (risks and side effects)

Learning Outcomes:

- After this course, trainees will be able to identify and manage salivary gland disease in line with their competencies as an Oral Surgeon

