

Protecting and improving the nation's health

Senior Paediatric Regional Advanced Training

Training Tomorrow's Consultants

Public Health: Child health and inequalities

Tuesday 25th February 2020, Garland Gallery, Leeds General Infirmary, Great George Street, Leeds, LS1 3EX

09:15-09:30	Registration
09:30- 10:15	Public health priorities for children Corinne Harvey, Deputy Director - Health &amp; Wellbeing and Workforce Development, PHE
10:15-11:00	Child health profiles and public health intelligence Cerri Wyborn, Senior Health Intelligence Analyst, Local Knowledge &amp; Intelligence Service, PHE OR Barbara Coyle Associate Director Local Knowledge &amp; Intelligence Service, Northern and Yorkshire, PHE
11:00- 11:30	Break
11:30- 12:15	Inequalities and wider determinants of children's health Luke Rollin, Centre Programme Manager, PHE
12:15-13:00	Lunch
13:00-14.00	Group work: Do wider inequalities always have to affect children's health and what can we change? Q1: What are the wider inequalities and how do they impact on child health? Q2: What can we do as a system to address this? Q3: What can we do as clinicians to address this?
14:00-14:30	Group feedback
14:30-15:00	Questions and discussion
15:00	Close